

National Environment awareness campaign

VIKSAT

(Years 2011-2014)

A subject of "Forest for sustainable livelihood" was taken up during National Environment Awareness Campaign and a training programme was organised for students of schools and colleges and discussions were held on the serious effects on environment at length.

